ORDER

- against -

EDWARD D. MULLINS,

Defendant.

---

JOHN G. KOELTL, District Judge:

The Court has received the attached letters from Bloomberg L.P. ("Bloomberg") and NYP Holdings, Inc. ("New York Post") requesting access to the various search warrant materials that this Court originally directed the Government to disclose to The New York Times. See United States v. Mullins, No. 22-cr-120, 2023 WL 3159418 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 26, 2023). The Government is directed to make those same materials available to Bloomberg and the New York Post, as well as to any other third parties who request access to those materials going forward. If the Government objects to any specific third-party request for disclosure, the Government may present the reasons for its objections to the Court no later than 4 days after its receipt of the request, and the Court will consider those objections before ruling on the request for disclosure.

SO ORDERED.

Re: United States v Mullins, No 1:22-cr-00120-JGK

Dear Judge Koeltl,

I write on behalf of NYP Holdings, Inc ("New York Post") to request that you direct the government to provide various search warrant materials to the New York Post that were previously provided to the New York Times and Insider pursuant to this court's orders of April 23, 2023 and June 6, 2023 see ECF No. 69 and ECF No. 81.

I have already contacted the government's attorneys of record in this case to request these materials.

Ms. Rothman, counsel of government, indicated that we should seek your approval first, out of an abundance of caution — as your orders only explicitly directed disclosures of the relevant documents to the New York Times and Insider — but the government has no objections.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: United States v. Mullins, No. 1:22-cr-00120-JGK

Dear Judge Koeltl:

I am writing on behalf of Bloomberg L.P., the publisher of Bloomberg News ("Bloomberg News"), to request that Your Honor direct the Government to provide Bloomberg News the materials that previously were provided to The New York Times and Insider at each of their requests (see, respectively, ECF No. 41 and ECF No. 78) pursuant to the Court's orders of April 26, 2023 (see ECF No. 69) and June 5, 2023 (see ECF No. 78).

Bloomberg News's reporter reached out to the Government's attorneys of record in this case to request the materials. Mr. Rohrbach, then-counsel for the Government, suggested that, out of an abundance of caution, we first seek the Court's approval, as the prior orders were specific to the news organizations that had made the earlier requests. Mr. Rohrbach further indicated that the Government had no objections to Bloomberg News's request.

We thank the Court in advance for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
